THE 9TH ASIA PACIFIC IAP CONGRESS

in conjunction with the 7th National Histotechnology Conference

4-7
June
2015

Brisbane Convention
and Exhibition Centre
Brisbane, Queensland
Australia

WELCOME

Brisbane is delighted to be the host for the '9th Asia Pacific International Academy of Pathology Congress 2015', and anticipating attendance of over 1200 registrars, scientists and pathologists.

On behalf of the International Academy of Pathologists Australasian Division, I would like to cordially invite you to attend the '9th Asia Pacific International Academy of Pathology Congress 2015'.

This significant event brings together a global gathering of world-renowned pathologists and scientists who are acknowledged leaders in their own fields. Supporting this important educational forum demonstrates our mutual commitment to pathology and continuing professional development for pathologists, scientists and registrars working in the Asia Pacific region.

I look forward to welcoming you to Brisbane in 2015 and sincerely hope that you will join us in making this congress an outstanding success.

Kind regards

Soon Lee, President APIAP 2015

DESTINATION AND VENUE

Brisbane is the capital city of Queensland and is known to be Australia's "most liveable city".

Brisbane City is situated on the Brisbane River and is full of striking historic buildings with modern architecture which are best viewed by night. You will never be bored of Brisbane and will be captivated by its exciting culture, nightlife, shopping and dining experiences. Brisbane is a diverse, multicultural city however; English is the spoken language within this destination.

Brisbane Convention & Exhibition Centre (BCEC)

The Brisbane Convention & Exhibition Centre is set amongst Brisbane's centrally located arts, cultural and entertainment precinct, South Bank. Ranked as one of the top three convention centres world-wide, this state-of-the-art purpose-built venue is renowned for its reputation of operational and service excellence. The Centre is recognised as one of Australia's leading meetings and events venues, offering complete flexibility and versatility to its clients. Over three impressive levels and within minutes walking distance to exceptional hotels, bar and dining venues, the Brisbane Convention & Exhibition Centre will set the stage for any successful event.
